SELECTION CRITERIA

Nominations must address the following questions and must not exceed 750 words per question.

1. What new innovation(s) have been applied in your business in the past twelve months that represent a significant transformation to your operations, technology or product development pipeline? Highlight, if any, initiatives that were borne out of previous AACB Staff Conferences. (Maximum 750 words)
2. What specific benefits or organisational gains have been realised from the innovation created for your bureau? Highlight what impact this innovation has had on the business events industry and the wider community. (Maximum 750 words)

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR ALL ENTRANTS

- Your convention bureau must be a financial member of AACB at the time of nomination, judging of the Awards, and the Awards Ceremony in 2017.
- Nominations are subject to a word limit. Entries that exceed the word limit may be penalised or disqualified from entry.
- Only nomination forms with completed answers will be accepted.
- Supporting information is allowed as evidence, but should not be used to extend your responses to questions past the stipulated maximum word limits.
- Submit your nomination to Annika Hofsink as a PDF document via email, annika.hofsink@aacb.org.au.

Information provided in your application may be used for media, marketing and promotional material (excluding any financial data, which will remain confidential).

All nomination forms must be received by AACB no later than:
5pm AEST, Friday 25 August 2017.
